Test your luck for extra points! Periodically the emcee will declare a bonus word for the Speller Helper to spell. For $20 each (no limit) you can bet on whether he's spelled his word successfully. If you guess correctly, you will get an extra point added to your score. This is a great way to improve your score and also help the cause of literacy. So hit those ATMs and load up on $20's.

Remember: All proceeds of the night benefit the adult learners of Garfield County.
